(Words and Figures) .
Tullio Pericoli: 1965-2017

Studies, sketches, watercolours, paintings and more at the Consadori Gallery

OPENING: THURSDAY APRIL THE 27TH 6.30 PM

April the 27th to May the 20th, 2017

Milan, March the 7th, 2017

Tullio Pericoli (1936), is an artist born the Marches who then settled in Milan: he needs no further presentation.

He has received national and international awards as an artist for his drawings on Linus, the dailies Il Corriere, La Repubblica, the magazines l'Espresso, The New Yorker, The New York Review of Books and many other media.

In the Nineteen Nineties he drew and painted for the theatre and opera preparing scenes and costumes for operas by Donizetti, Rossini and pieces by Jonesco, performed at the Zurich Operahaus, the Teatro alla Scala, and the Teatro Studio in Milan.

He then turned to painting which he had pursued since the Nineteen Seventies. His 1987 water colour for Livio Garzanti's Publishing House is one to remember.

He has exhibited in Italy and abroad from Munich to Dublin. In 2015 his exhibition "Sulla terra" (On the Earth) was a collection of landscape projects between 1999 and 2015, which was on show first at Palazzo Fava in Bologna and then at Palazzo Ducale in Urbino.

His exhibition at the Consadori Gallery SCRITTURE E FIGURE (Words and Figures) Tullio Pericoli: 1965-2017, includes a large number of his works from 1965 to date on writing, alphabets and the images they can generate. It is an interesting bird's eye view of the artist's work for nearly 50 years, as he mesmerizes and amazes us with his unchanged fresh appeal.

The Artist will attend the opening.
