Galleria AnnaMaria Consadori is pleased to present the exhibition 'Suggestions'

As usual, as the Christmas season approaches, Galleria AnnaMaria Consadori presents a group exhibition, a selection of editions from the 1960s/70s by American and British artists and works by historical and contemporary Italian artists.

A varied and thoughtful selection of works ranging from James Rosenquist's large-size banner to Keith Haring and Joe Tilson to Lucio Fontana's precious multiple. There are also two new works by Paolo Ventura and landscapes close to abstraction by Tullio Pericoli where colour is the absolute protagonist, to name but a few...

A space is reserved for the jewellery of Manina Tischler, a 'born surrealist' according to Breton, and for jewellery and ceramics by Antonia Campi, a leading figure in the history of design and a free and original spirit who loved to break the rules.

An exhibition intended to offer a series of suggestions from the world of art, suggestions to end the old year and begin the new one with the hope that it will be better.

On show works by: BARATELLA, CALDER, CASTELLANI, J. CLEMENTE, CONSONNI, CONSADORI, DINE, DUPEYRON, FILOCAMO, FONTANA, GUARINO, HARING, HARLOFF, MAROTTA, PERICOLI, RAUSCHENBERG, ROSENQUIST, F. ROSSI, ROTELLA, TILSON, VALENTINI, P. VENTURA, VOLPINI, WESSELMANN
